

Webinars

Below is a list of Webinar producers that frequently find their way onto the CE Calendar. The following steps need to be followed to receive credit for a live Webinar.

1. Fill out a Learning Activity Report (LAR).
- 2.a. Print certificate; OR
 - b. Write a short summary about what you learned at the bottom of the LAR.
This summary should not exceed 250 words.

Accessible Technology Coalition

--“trainings provide knowledge and support to identify the correct AT solution and use it successfully”

American Management Association

--“continually in tune with the latest management trends and issues”

Booklist

--occasional programs centered around books, reading, and library resources

Common Knowledge

--programs on fundraising, marketing, communications, and advocacy

Continuing Education in Texas

Texas State Library

--training on many aspects of libraries and librarianship

Foundation Center

--"to help you master the world of foundation fundraising, proposal writing, and all that goes into getting the grants you need"

Infopeople

--training on many aspects of libraries and librarianship

Library Journal

--occasional programs centered around books, reading, technology, and library resources

NCompass Live

Nebraska Library Commission

--mixture of presentations, interviews, reviews, Web tours, training sessions, and Q&A sessions

School Library Journal

--programs on books, reading, youth services, and learning

TechSoup

--technology-related programs

WebJunction

--all kinds of programming for librarians